

THE ITALY INSIDER

MENU

NEWSLETTER

SEARCH

6 NATURE ESCAPES TO WITNESS THE AUTUMN COLOURS

24 October 2023

Written by The Italy Insider

From simply admiring the warm coloured hues from a panoramic pool to venturing into untouched nature on a leisurely stroll or guided e-bike, Autumn is the ultimate season to enjoy the spectacle of our earth. Not only is it a feast for the eyes, but also for our stomach: some of the best culinary products are harvested during this seasons: pumpkins, truffles, butternut squash, carrots and more. Here is our selection of locations to visit this fall, to infuse yourself with only the very best of what this season has to offer.

5 CASTELLO DI BUTTRIO, FRIULI VENEZIA GIULIA

Castello di Buttrio is a holistic destination offering immersive experiences in winemaking and hospitality. The 38-hectare estate, dating back to the 17th century has opened its doors welcoming guests into its 16 rooms and suites. The beating heart of the castle is its vineyards. Perched on the summit of Pampinutta Hill, named after pampino, the vine leaf, it inevitably thrives on its cultivation. Tastings and vineyard aperitifs offer an immersive experience in the natural setting surrounding the estate, in one of the most renowned regions for vine cultivation. Likewise, after a day of exploring the surroundings through walks, horseback rides, or bike rides, a poolside aperitif marks a moment of absolute relaxation during the most romantic time of day. This is the ideal place to immerse yourself in the beauty of autumn foliage and savour the region's wine. WEBSITE

Castello di Buttrio